BANGALORE, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1933.

PART IV.

Legislative Measures and Rules thereunder.

NOTIFICATION.

No. L. 3189—Ml. 113-33-3, Dated Bangalore, 6—7th November 1933.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 106(2) of the Mysore Minor Municipalities Regulation, 1933, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to make the following rules for regulating conservancy and sanitation and prohibiting public nuisances in Minor Municipalities in the State :—

(1) No dust, dung, dirt, ashes, garden, kitchen or stable refuse or filth of any kind or any animal matter or any broken glass or earthenware or rubbish or any other thing, that is or that may be a nuisance shall be deposited in any street or drain except in Municipal dust bins where provided or on private lands for short periods not exceeding four days.

(2) Tiles, garden sweepings, branches of trees, thatched grass and night soil shall not be deposited in public streets or drains.

(3) Sullage and urine, etc., shall not be discharged into public roadside gutters, streets or open spaces without the special permission of the President.

(4) Any person who shall be guilty of a breach of any of the above rules shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(5) No person shall use a public street or lane or open space for the making of cow dung cakes, on the external walls of houses or yards or compound walls and any one infringing this rule shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 10.

(6) Any person easing himself or allowing any member of his family to ease either in or in the vicinity of any public street, lane and drain or in or outside any part of any public latrine other than in the trench made therein for the purpose shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding half a rupee for the first offence, one rupee for the second and Rs. two for each succeeding offence.

(7) Persons afflicted with loathsome or infectious diseases are prohibited from vending for sale any articles of food or drink in the Municipal area and any one infringing this rule will render himself liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Re. 1 for the first offence, and a like sum for each succeeding offence.

(8) The practice of feeding milch kine and cattle intended for slaughter on stable litter and other refuse is strictly prohibited and any person residing within Municipal limits who may transgress this rule will, on conviction before a Magistrate, subject himself to a fine of Rs. 10 for the first and Rs. 20 for each succeeding offence.

(9) All persons holding houses or lands within Municipal limits shall destroy lantana, prickly pear or other rank vegetation, where it at present exists. The growth of lantana, prickly pear and milk-hedge in the vicinity of houses for the purpose of hedge is prohibited, and if, in special cases, lantana and milk-hedge are permitted to be used as such, they shall always be kept trimmed and shall not exceed the height of 4 feet from the ground. Any infringement of this rule will render the offender liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(10) All persons owning houses or lands within the Municipal limits are required to keep all drains and water channels in and about their premises free from obstruction and to remove all evident mosquito breeding places. All persons who, after a due notice has been given by the President, fail to comply with the provisions of this rule shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, subject themselves to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 20.

(11) The owner or care-taker of any cattle or animal shall not keep or allow them to be kept in or upon any building in such a way as to cause or suffer them to be tethered or strayed about by any member of his family or household in any public street or place so as to be a nuisance. Any infringement of this rule will render the offender liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for each offence and also for subsequent repetition.

By Order,

H. V. RAMASVAMI,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.
